No. 20 – 2015

FIRST SESSION, SIXTH PARLIAMENT

REPUBLIC OF NAMIBIA
ORDER PAPER
OF THE
NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

TUESDAY, 16 JUNE 2015
(14:30 – 17:45)

ORDER OF THE DAY

Resumption of Debate on Second Reading – Public Enterprises Governance Amendment Bill [B. 6 – ‘15] – [Ms. Dienda].

NOTICES OF MOTIONS

I. Mr. Venaani:

That this Assembly –

Discusses the need to extend payment moratoriums on repayments of Commercial Farm Land under the AgriBank Loan Book, due to the following reasons:

- The impending drought that threatens to cripple the agricultural industry; and
- The volatile nature of cattle prices or pricing, further exacerbated by the current threat of Foot and Mouth Disease.

That this motion be referred to the Standing Committees on Economics and Public Administration for further consultations and appropriate recommendations.

II. Mr. Venaani:

In view of the precarious deadlock of a shortage of urban land, sky rocketing housing prices and a lack of subsidy to Local Authorities –

That this Assembly –

Discusses the creation of an Urban Land Resettlement Scheme to assist the urban majority to access urban land through Equity Programmes and thereby facilitate equitable access to land.

Discusses the various Social Housing Schemes that could be implemented to ease the housing burden in urban areas and matters incidental thereto.

That this motion be referred to the Standing Committee on Natural Resources, and the Committee on Gender Equality, Social Development and Family Affairs, for scrutiny and recommendations.

THURSDAY, 18 JUNE 2015

NOTICE OF A MOTION

Mr. Venaani:

That this Assembly –

Discusses the poor prices obtained by rural farmers on agricultural products such as cattle, goats and sheep in rural areas South of the Redline in comparison with those prices fetched in commercial hubs for the self same products.

That this House –

Further discusses the possibility and viability of government and specifically, the Ministry of Agriculture, Water and Forestry entering into partnership agreements with slaughtering houses such as Meatco for the sale of agricultural products originating North of the Redline at improved prices, and matters incidental thereto.

That this motion be referred to the Standing Committee on Natural Resources for investigation and reconciliation.

THURSDAY, 25 JUNE 2015

NOTICE OF A MOTION

Ms. Dienda:

That this Assembly –

Debates the issue of “Old Age Homes in Namibia”; is it a blessing or a curse?
