

REMARKS BY HON. PROF. PETER H.KATJAVIVI, MP
SPEAKER OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY ON THE FLOOR OF THE HOUSE

Terrorism Attack on the Grounds of the British Parliament, Westminster

24th March 2017

---

Hon. Members,

We are all now aware of what transpired in London, a day before yesterday when a terror attack took place at the grounds of the British Parliament, at Westminster.

Yes, there has been loss of lives of innocent people who happened to be in the vicinity of the British Houses of parliament. Especially significant and troubling is the fact that the attack targeted the very foundational pillar of democracy of the society.

It is against this background that we express our sincere condolences to the victims, their families as well as to our sister Parliament and its leadership.

This serves to strengthen our resolve as we stand with the rest of the global family to denounce terrorism and extremism, and to contribute in whatever way possible within our power as a democratic society to root out this vice from the ideologies that govern the sustainable future of mankind!
