MEDIA INVITATION

Stakeholder Engagement Session & Training on Financial Scrutiny

Theme: “Strengthening Parliamentary Oversight and Budgetary Alignment with National Priorities”

The Parliamentary Standing Committee on Budget and Finance invites members of the media to cover its Stakeholder Engagement Session and Training on Financial Scrutiny, taking place from:

Date: 21–25 July 2025 and 28 July – 1 August 2025

Venue: Atermis and Plaza Hotels, Swakopmund, Erongo Region

The event will bring together key stakeholders—including government officials, civil society, and the private sector—to engage on fiscal policy issues ahead of the 2025 Mid-Term Budget Review.

Key Media Opportunities:

- Opening Ceremony – 21 July, 09:00–10:30

Remarks by the Erongo Regional Governor, Committee Chairperson, and guest speakers

- Expert insights from the Ministry of Finance, Bank of Namibia, NAMRA, and civil society
- Thematic sessions on tax, gender-responsive budgeting, and public debt
- Final recommendations on budgetary reforms

This is a valuable opportunity for media to engage with policymakers, report on public finance priorities, and access expert commentary.
