4. Ministerial Statements in terms of Rule 136 of the Standing Rules and Orders:

The Right Honourable Prime Minister, Dr. Tjitunga Elijah Ngurare, announced a voluntary national initiative to support vulnerable elders and veterans of the liberation struggle, particularly in rural communities. The Prime Minister emphasized that while many elderly citizens are cared for by their families and supported through government grants, others remain in dire need of assistance. To address this, the government plans to mobilize TVET trainees and unemployed youth to help rehabilitate, construct, and maintain households for these elders and veterans, sourcing materials from local entrepreneurs. The programme will be implemented through “food-for-work” and “cash-for-work” models, with collaboration encouraged from the private sector and traditional authorities, complementing community garden projects that enhance food security.

In discussing veterans’ welfare, the Prime Minister reaffirmed the nation’s duty to honour those who sacrificed for Namibia’s independence. He reflected on the country’s history, the painful legacy of the liberation struggle, and the enduring value of national reconciliation initiated by Founding President Dr. Sam Nujoma. The Prime Minister condemned the growing insensitivity toward veterans living in hardship and stressed that they deserve respect, dignity, and improved living conditions. The initiative aims to restore and upgrade veterans’ and elders’ homes with essential amenities—such as water, sanitation, and electricity—ensuring they live decently and with the honour befitting their contribution to the nation’s freedom.
